Free admission, priceless memories at annual Memorial weekend festival

The annual ViVa! Vienna! Memorial Day weekend festival will provide thrills (in the form of rides) and chills (in the form of smoothies and other international and festival eats) from 10 a.m.-10 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, May 25 and 26, and 10 a.m.-6 p.m. Monday, May 27. The festival takes place along historic Church Street and around the Town Green area.

Hosted by the Rotary Club of Vienna, the annual community festival features live entertainment, more than 125 food vendors and crafters, and, of course, tummy-tickling rides. Admission is free. Guests also can enjoy, free of charge, musical as well as other special performances and attend a Memorial Day ceremony at 1 p.m. Monday, May 27.

The number of tickets required varies from ride to ride; tickets are $1 each, $20 for a sheet of 24, or $35 for an all-day wristband. All festival proceeds are utilized by the Rotary Club to make charitable donations.
