Amateur photographers from across the region are invited to put their talent and photography skills on full display in the 2025 Vienna Photo Show. The show and contest are set to take place Saturday and Sunday, March 15-16, at the Vienna Community Center, 120 Cherry St., SE, Vienna, Virginia.

Contestants can enter up to three photos (with a maximum of two photos in any one category) beginning Thursday, March 13. Applications are available online or at the Vienna Community Center's front desk. The entry fee is $10 per person and all Vienna Photo Show guidelines must be followed.

Ribbons will be awarded in several categories including animal, nature, digital art, scenic, architecture, photojournalism, and portraiture. One "Best in Show" ribbon will be awarded to the adult division, and one will be awarded to the student division on Saturday, March 15. A "People's Choice" ribbon will be awarded on Sunday, March 16. Separate categories are available for middle and high school student photographers' grades 7-12, whose photos will be displayed and judged separately from adult photography.

Ahead of the Photo Show, Vienna Photographic Society will host a presentation workshop for contestants on Monday, March 10 at 6 p.m. at the Vienna Community Center. The free workshop will focus on matting, framing, and hanging photographs. The workshop is free, and registration is not required.
