Vienna Theatre Company presents “Decision Height”

The curtain goes up on Vienna Theatre Company’s spring production of “Decision Height” Friday, April 18, 2025, at 8 p.m. This award-winning show explores the essential role that Women Army Service Pilots (WASP) played in World War II and the camaraderie they shared.

“Decision Height” follows the harrowing story of Virginia Hascall who has left her home and fiancé to become a WASP, endeavoring to defeat the Axis powers. As the war wages on, Virginia and her fellow pilots form a sisterhood that cannot be broken, but she soon faces a decision that will change her life forever. Content warning for mild adult themes and smoking.

The Vienna Theatre Company’s performances of “Decision Height” are at 8 p.m. on the following Fridays and Saturdays: April 18-19, April 25-26 and May 2-3.
