VA250 Mobile Museum Comes to Vienna as Part of Liberty Amendments Month

The VA250 Mobile Museum will visit Vienna Elementary School from July 10–12, 2025, bringing an interactive and high-tech exhibit that explores Virginia's founding role in American history. The museum will be open from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. daily at 128 Center St., S., as part of the Town's Liberty Amendments Month celebration.

The mobile museum engages visitors of all ages through immersive displays, interactive exhibits, and powerful artifacts that highlight pivotal events, groundbreaking ideas, and the diverse individuals who shaped the early United States. The experience emphasizes Virginia's lasting impact on the country's journey toward democracy and equality.

The mobile museum is part of a statewide initiative commemorating the 250th anniversary of the American Revolution and the independence of the United States. It is being presented in Vienna, Va. as part of the community's Liberty Amendments Month festivities. For more information about the museum visit www.va250.org/mobile-museum.
